

FCC post announcement.

Note different date for KKDC

On June 15, 2016 KIQX was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until April 21, 2021. Our license will expire on April 21, 2021. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for inspection at www.fcc.gov. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last 8 years. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by March 1, 2021. Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 190 Turner Drive, Durango, Colorado, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.

On June 15, 2016 KRSJ was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until April 21, 2021. Our license will expire on April 21, 2021. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for inspection at www.fcc.gov. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last 8 years. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by March 1, 2021. Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 190 Turner Drive, Durango, Colorado, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.

On June 15, 2016 KIUP was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until April 21, 2021. Our license will expire on April 21, 2021. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for inspection at www.fcc.gov. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last 8 years. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by March 1, 2021. Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 190 Turner Drive, Durango, Colorado, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.

On March 22, 2013 KKDC was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until April 21, 2021. Our license will expire on April 21, 2021. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for inspection at www.fcc.gov. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last 8 years. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by March 1, 2021. Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 190 Turner Drive, Durango, Colorado, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.